Cultural Enrichment Services, Inc. is proud to present

The Legacy of Timbuktu:
Wonders of the Written Word

A Travelling Exhibit at the
Cameron Village Regional Library
January 23–29, 2010

Exhibit Events:

Find Your Way to Timbuktu
December 29, 2009  2:30-3:30 pm, children ages 4+
Where in the world is Timbuktu? Why is it important? Bring the family and discover Timbuktu. Call to register.

Panel Discussion: Extending the Legacy of Timbuktu Through Literacy and Peace
January 24, 3:00-4:30 pm

Film: Caravans of Gold
January 26, 7:00-8:30 pm

Reading, Writing and Timbuktu
January 27, 4:00-5:00 pm, children ages 4+
Did you know that Timbuktu was a center of learning for over 700 years? Come and make your own manuscript of Arabic words. Please call to register.

Educational Activities:

Distance Learning Teacher Training Courtesy of UNC African Studies Center:
   • http://www.unc.edu/depts/africa/outreach
Scavenger Hunt for Middle School Students @ Cameron Village Regional Library
Research Guide posted on Wake County Public Libraries website

A World Heritage Series Event of The International Museum of Muslim Cultures in partnership with the Mamma Haidara Memorial Library of Timbuktu
Hosted by Cultural Enrichment Services, Inc., in partnership with UNC African Studies Center, Cameron Village Regional Library, and the NC Museum of History, and sponsored by the North Carolina Humanities Council. Official Sponsors: Jackson State University & Tougaloo College

For more information, contact Cultural Enrichment Services, Inc. at feviv@aol.com or call (919) 772-1768.